TO: CHARLOTTE KAISER, AUSA, Attorney for the Prosecution.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on Thursday, July 31, at 10:30 am, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, in the Courtroom of the Honorable Jan M. Adler in San Diego, California, the material
witnesses, ERNESTO MARTINEZ-MOSQUEDA, JOSE ALBERTO TOLEDO-CORRALES
, and BLANCA MORADO-LOPEZ, by and through their counsel, JAMES C.
ALVORD, will bring the above entitled motion.

MOTION

The material witnesses, ERNESTO MARTINEZ-MOSQUEDA, JOSE ALBERTO TOLEDO-CORRALES, and BLANCA MORADO-LOPEZ, by and through their counsel, JAMES C. ALVORD, and pursuant to Rule 15(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 3144, move for an order to secure their testimony pending trial, and for an order for their release from custody immediately thereafter.

This motion will be made on the grounds that the witnesses are unable to meet any condition of release and that their testimony can be adequately be secured by deposition, and that further detention is not necessary to prevent a failure of justice and would, in fact, perpetuate an extreme hardship on the material witnesses and their families.

15

This motion will be made based upon the Declaration of James C. Alvord, Esq., the Points and Authorities in Support of the Motion, and all documents and records on file herein, and upon such oral testimony as the Court may deem proper.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

22                   I, JAMES C. ALVORD, attorney for material witnesses, ERNESTO
23 MARTINEZ-MOSQUEDA, JOSE ALBERTO TOLEDO-CORRALES, and BLANCA MORADO-
24 LOPEZ, declare that I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law
25 in the State of California and in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California.

I further declare that on or about June 9, 2008, I was 27 appointed by United States Magistrate Judge Peter C. Lewis to 28 represent three material witnesses in the above-referenced alien

1      smuggling case. Despite my best efforts to secure a release on 2      bond for my clients they remain in custody.

3              The detained witnesses have informed me that they have no one,
4      not a relative, friend or acquaintance, who would be willing and
5      qualified to serve as a personal surety for any of them. Efforts
6      of this office to locate a proper individual to act as personal 7      surety for any of the witnesses have been unsuccessful as well.
8      Therefore, the witnesses have remained in custody since their 9      arrest by United States Border Patrol agents nearly two months ago.

10              This is a particularly cruel time in the lives of my clients
11      to remain in jail as each of them has taken on the responsibility 12      of providing for not only their children, but their parents back in 13      Mexico as well. Each individual contributes to the support of his 14      family, or they had been doing so prior to their arrest.

15              In addition, while relatively young, Ms. Morado-Lopez has two 16      young children who have been without their mother for the entire 17      period of her confinement. She appears to a naive individual, ill-
18      equipped to withstand the fears and burdens associated with 19      confinement.

20              The fact that all three witnesses are enduring considerable 21      hardship cannot be refuted.

22              In view of these facts, I solicited and received permission
23      from all three of my clients to seek an Order of this Court for 24      taking of their video-taped deposition in order that they might 25      soon be able to return home to their families in Mexico.

26              I fully explained the procedures involved in the requested 27      deposition and received the promise of each of my clients of their 28      complete cooperation in the video deposition process.

1       I am unaware of any reason why the witnesses should not be
2 released after the video deposition pursuant to Rule 15 (a) of the 3 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

4       I believe it would be in the interests of justice to allow the 5 testimony of the material witnesses in question to be secured by 6 video deposition and to thereafter release the witnesses back to 7 their families in Mexico in order to prevent further suffering from 8 incarceration and its attendant hardships.

9       It is clear that continued incarceration of these witnesses
10 will unnecessarily prolong their hardship.

11       I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true
12 and correct.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

I. INTRODUCTION

22 The material witnesses, ERNESTO MARTINEZ-MOSQUEDA, JOSE ALBERTO
23 TOLEDO-CORRALES, and BLANCA MORADO-LOPEZ were arrested on or about 24 June 5, 2008, near Calexico, California, by officers of United 25 States Border Patrol after they had illegally entered the United 26 States.

27 All three were later designated as material witnesses and 28 placed in custody by US Marshals and subsequently transported to the

1      Imperial County Jail where they remain in custody. They may remain
2      so indefinitely as a qualified surety cannot be found for any of the 3      three individuals.

4              These witnesses, by and through their appointed counsel, James
5      C. Alvord, move this Court for an Order under U.S.C. Section 3144
6      and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 15, as the witnesses have 7      been unable to secure a surety under the conditions imposed by the 8      government in this matter.

10              II.

11              UNDER EXISTING FEDERAL LAW

12              THE COURT IS REQUIRED TO ORDER

13              THE DEPOSITION AND RELEASE OF THIS WITNESS

14

15              The language of 18 U.S.C. Section 3144 provides that material
16      witnesses who are unable to comply with any condition of release
17      have the right to have their depositions taken and thereafter be 18      released:

19              *"No material witness may be detained because of inability to 20      comply with a condition of release if the testimony of such witness
21      can adequately be secured by deposition, and if further detention 22      is not necessary to prevent a failure of justice..."*

23              Further, Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 15(a) provides the 24      procedure basis for this motion for deposition:

25              *"If a witness is detained pursuant to Section 3144 of Title 18, 26      United States Code, the Court on written motion of the witness and 27      upon notice to the parties may direct that the witness's deposition
28      be taken. After the deposition has been subscribed the Court may*

1      discharge the witness..."

2            The language of 18 U.S.C. 3144 is mandatory and requires
 3 material witnesses's deposition and release. Moreover, any
 4 ambiguity which exists in 18 U.S.C. Section 3144 must be construed
 5 in favor of material witnesses where they were incarcerated
 6 indefinitely without being charged with any criminal violation.

7            As part of In Re Class Action Application for Habeas Corpus on 8 behalf of all Material Witnesses in the Western District of Texas,
 9 612 Fed.Supp. 940, 945 (1985), the Court stated:

10           As a final matter, this Court is of the opinion that 18 U.S.C.
 11 Section 3144 required that an individual incarcerated as a material
 12 witness be deposed if certain requirements are met. Without 13 assistance of counsel, it is this Court's belief that deposition of 14 the material witnesses rarely go forward and that as a consequence,
 15 the incarceration of material witnesses is prolonged. This Court
 16 is of the opinion that extant procedures not only create the risk
 17 of erroneous deprivations of liberty, but also create the risk of 18 unnecessarily prolonged deprivations of liberty..."

19           The instant witness is entitled to due process of the law under 20 the Fifth Amendment. Id. 612 Fed. Supp. at 944. Also see United 21 States v. Linton, 502 Fed. Supp. 878 (1980), which had a material
 22 witness's deposition ordered and then ordered the release of the 23 material witness despite failure of the witness to appear in 24 response to subpoena in the underlying criminal action.

25           Further, legislative history supports the position that the 26 deposition and release of the material witness is mandatory.

27           Section 3144: RELEASE OR DETENTION OF A MATERIAL WITNESS, reads
 28 (in part):

1        "This Section carries forward, with two significant changes,
2        current 18 U.S.C. 3149 which concerns the release of a material
3        witness. If a person's testimony is that it may become 4        impracticable to secure his presence by subpoena, the government is 5        authorized to take such person into custody. A judicial officer is 6        to treat such a person in accordance with Section 3142 and to impose
7        those conditions of release that he finds to be reasonably necessary
8        to assure the presence of the witness as required, or if no
9        conditions of release will assure the appearance of the witness,
10       order his detention as provided in Section 3142. However, if a 11       material witness cannot comply with release conditions or there are 12       no release conditions that will assure his appearance, but he will 13       give a deposition that will adequately preserve his testimony, the 14       judicial officer is required to order the witness's release after 15       the taking of the deposition if this will not result in a failure
16       of justice...1984 U.S. Code Cong. and Adm. News, p 3182.

17       In the instant matter, counsel for the detained material witness 18       believes there will be no failure of justice in requiring the 19       deposition, and asserts that such contention is supported by case
20       law. It is true that defendant has a Constitutional right to 21       confront and cross-examine witnesses against them, but this right
22       must be balanced against the Constitutional rights of the detained
23       witness. In this matter, the defendant is represented by counsel, 24       said counsel has not been denied the opportunity to interview the 25       witness while the witness has been detained, and said counsel and 26       his client will be notified of the time and place of the deposition 27       and are invited to ask all questions of the witnesses which they 28       believe will further their case.

III.*THE WITNESSES AND THEIR FAMILIES ARE SUFFERING ECONOMIC HARDSHIP AS A RESULT OF THEIR CONTINUING INCARCERATION

Federal courts in this District have been applying Torres-Ruiz v. U.S. District Court For The Southern District of California, 120 F.3d 933 (9th Cir. 1997) as support for a decision to order the depositions and subsequent release of material witnesses. Some of these same courts have also been asking for some reassurance that continued incarceration of witnesses will result in a hardship for the witnesses. Counsel for this witness has provided the Court with a separate declaration identifying the circumstances which are in place creating severe economic and personal hardships for this witness and his family. Thus, this standard and often-applied requirement has been met.

IV.
CONCLUSION

Under the clear meaning of U.S.C. Section 3144, legislative history and relevant case law, the ordering of deposition and subsequent release of these material witnesses appears mandatory.

With that in mind, the witnesses respectfully request this Court grant a video deposition of their testimony and then order their release.
